

Design & Build
Conference Series

HELP US INSPIRE OUR NEXT GENERATION OF INDUSTRY PROFESSIONALS

Design & Build Day is a one-day conference dedicated to college and high school students enrolled in interior design, drafting, architectural technology, engineering, and construction management programs.

The Mission is to provide them an overview of career opportunities available within their fields of interest.

To insure the events are presented at No Cost to the universities, or the students, the American Institute of Building Design serves as the primary underwriter and depends on the participation of others within the AEC industries to help provide funding for the meeting spaces, food, AV and speaker expenses.

Please support this effort.
