

2012 Michigan AIBD Fall Conference

Join Us Saturday, November 10, 2012

in

Grand Rapids at the Fredrick Meijer Gardens and Sculpture Park

1000 East Beltline Avenue Northeast

Join fellow AIBD members and guests amid the beauty and fall splendor of the 125-acre botanical gardens and internationally acclaimed sculpture park. The Gardens are conveniently located on the east side of Grand Rapids right off I-96.

Check out www.meijergardens.org/ for more on the gardens.

The conference will feature a presentation by Daniel Girdwood, a patent attorney specializing in intellectual property. He will advise us specifically in the area of copyright law, and has promised to leave ample time for us to share experiences and to answer our questions. There will be sponsor presentations and a short membership meeting as well.

GOOD NEWS! This is a FREE conference to members and their guests! (Park admission and lunch are not provided but there are dining options on site.)

Plan now to attend. We will begin at 10:00am sharp, in the Brewer Room, Lower Level. We will conclude by 3:00pm. Our schedule is designed to accommodate those driving from the east side of the state, and yet leave ample time to peruse the grounds for those who wish.

Call Jan Lyndrup (616.204.6188) or Mike Lotterman (616.534.6464) for further information.
