

AIBD Board of Directors Nomination Form

The American Institute of Building Design seeks board members who internalize the core value of integrity and that have a demonstrated commitment to a self-sustaining & socially responsible profession. Further, the role of the board dictates a desire for members with strong strategic and problem solving capabilities.

Each candidate must have two or more nominations. One nomination may be from the candidate themselves.

NOMINATIONS CLOSE AT 11:59 APRIL 30, 2017.

AIBD Board of Directors Nomination Form

* 1. Who are you nominating?

Name:

* 2. I hereby nominate (members may nominate themselves) the above referenced AIBD Professional member for the position of:

- President
- Internal Vice President
- External Vice President
- Treasurer
- Secretary
- Director

3. Please mark any of the following skills or experience that the candidate possesses.

- Contacts, networking
- Event planning, fundraising
- Finance, accounting
- Management, administration
- Nonprofit experience (i.e. with other organizations)
- Public relations, communications
- Teaching experience, curriculum development
- Writing, blogging, publishing

Other (please specify)

4. Indicate any other special skills, talents or services the candidate can provide during his/her term (one year) of leadership.

5. Indicate the single most important issue the candidate wants to tackle or goal she/he wishes to achieve during their term (one year) of leadership

* 6. Nominated by:

* 7. Has this person been contacted to determine their interest in being nominated?

Yes

* 8. If "Yes," would she/he be willing to serve if elected?

Yes